Ultimus Customer Wins Digital HR of the Year Award for 2016

Qatar General Electric and Water Corporation (Kahramaa) Wins Digital HR of the Year Award with Human Resources Automation by Ultimus BPM Suite

New York, NY – February 27, 2017 – Ultimus, Inc., developer of Composed Process Solutions and Adaptive BPM Suite software, proudly announces that its customer, Kahramaa (Qatar General Electricity & Water Corporation), has won the Digital HR of the Year Award at the 4th Annual GCC Government HR Summit in Abu Dhabi, UAE.

This prestigious award is designed to recognize and honor outstanding contributions and achievements in the field of Human Resources. Kahramaa was selected for having the best HR digital services and practices in the region by an expert panel of judges comprised of analysts and HR experts.

As a longtime and dedicated Ultimus customer, Kahramaa has automated over 30 Human Resource related processes utilizing the Ultimus Adaptive BPM Suite, one of the most widely used business process management (BPM) software suites in the world.

As Qatar is a rapidly changing country with a fast growing economy, Kahramaa needed automation to ensure efficient and streamlined operations, eliminate paper, and provide visibility into business processes. Ultimus' advantages in the areas of rapid solution deployment, ease of change, and ready integration with ERP and other systems were essential for the automation of HR processes such as employee onboarding and offboarding, vacation and leave requests, duty resumption, exit permits, and employee loan requests.

With the help of Ultimus software, Kahramaa's HR automation efforts allowed them to quickly support the rapidly changing needs associated with their growing workforce and customer base.

During the presentation of this year's Digital HR of the Year Award, Kahramaa's Human Resources Department Manager, Najlaa Al- Buanai, stated that "Kahramaa is committed to providing better customer services through effective and dynamic human resources strategies, systems and business processes aligned to meet its corporate objectives."

Our congratulations to the entire Kahramaa team!
